RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with great excitement to share with everyone, that after 55 years in the commercial office furniture industry, Gray Office Furnishings (1993) Ltd. is retiring from business.

This will take place as of November 30th, 2024. As the owner of Gray Office Furnishings for the past 25 years, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our customers, manufacturers, and factory representatives for all their support. These past 36 years that I've dedicated to the company has been amazing!

I will always cherish the relationships that have been built over the years. Thank you all for making this journey exciting and adventurous.

I am also excited to share with you, that Gray Office Furnishings legacy will continue through a new alliance. Penny Shebaylo with WorkRoom Office Interiors will continue to seamlessly transition and service Gray Office Furnishings book of business, through my ongoing mentorship and support. Penny will be handling all current business with Gray Office Furnishings until November 30th, at which point workflow will transition to WorkRoom Office Interiors.

Updated announcements and contact information regarding WorkRoom Office Interiors details will follow in mid-October. In the meantime, please continue to contact us at the information below until the book of business transition is complete and announced.
